Our Recruitment Procedure

To ensure a structured, transparent, and effective hiring process for placing candidates in the aviation sector across India, offering them promising career opportunities with reputable organizations.

Job Opening & Vacancy Notification

Internal Planning: The recruitment process begins with an internal discussion regarding the job roles and specifications, including key responsibilities, required qualifications, and experience.

Job Posting: Vacancies will be posted on the company's website, job portals, and relevant social media platforms to attract candidates. Job openings will also be shared with academic institutions and aviation training centers.

Application Review

Resume Screening: All applications will be reviewed for their relevance to the job role, including educational qualifications, prior experience, skills, and certifications related to the aviation sector.

Shortlisting: Candidates who meet the criteria will be shortlisted for the next steps in the hiring process.

Pre-screening & Telephonic Interview

Initial Screening Call: Our HR team will conduct a telephonic interview to assess the candidate's communication skills, overall personality, and understanding of the aviation industry.

Screening Questions: Focus on experience, career goals, availability, and motivation for pursuing a role in aviation.

Assessment & Skill Evaluation

Technical Evaluation: Depending on the role (e.g., Pilot, Cabin Crew, Ground Staff, etc.), candidates will be asked to take a technical assessment, which may include knowledge tests on aviation industry standards, procedures, safety protocols, and customer service.

Personality & Psychometric Tests: For certain roles, candidates may undergo psychometric evaluations to assess their personality traits and suitability for customer-facing positions in the aviation sector.

Personal Interview

Interview Panel: A senior member of the recruitment team, along with an aviation industry expert, will conduct the face-to-face or virtual interview.

Interview Process: The interview will cover the candidate's:

- Technical Knowledge: In-depth questions related to the aviation industry.
- Soft Skills: Communication, customer service, problem-solving ability, and leadership (if applicable).
- Behavioral Questions: Assessing alignment with company culture and aviation industry standards.

Reference Checks

Professional References: Candidates may be required to provide references from previous employers or colleagues in the aviation sector.

Background Verification: A thorough background check, including criminal history, employment records, and educational verification, will be conducted to ensure integrity.

Medical Test & BMI

BMI : BMI (Body Mass Index) is a key health metric in the aviation industry, ensuring physical fitness and safety standards for job roles.

Medical Test : Medical tests are crucial in the aviation industry to ensure employees are physically fit and capable of performing their duties safely.

Job Offer

Offer Letter: Once a candidate is selected, an official offer letter will be sent, outlining the position, salary package, benefits, joining date, and other employment terms.

Negotiation: If necessary, candidates will be allowed to negotiate salary, work location, and other benefits.

Onboarding & Training

Pre-Joining Documentation: Candidates will complete necessary formalities such as submitting identification documents, signed contracts, and medical fitness certificates (as required in the aviation industry).

Orientation Program: New hires will undergo a comprehensive onboarding process, including an orientation to the company culture, policies, and the specific demands of the aviation sector.

Role-Specific Training: Candidates will receive hands-on training for their respective roles in compliance with aviation standards and safety protocols.

Post-Recruitment Evaluation

Follow-up & Feedback: After the first 30 days, candidates will undergo a performance evaluation to assess their adaptability to the company and the aviation industry.

Continuous Support: AspiraGlory Pvt. Ltd. will provide ongoing career development support, including additional training programs and mentorship, to ensure that the placed candidates excel in their roles.

Job Placement Records

Tracking & Reporting: All job placements will be documented and monitored, ensuring placement statistics are available for both candidates and clients.

Feedback Mechanism: Clients and candidates will be encouraged to provide feedback on the recruitment process, which will help refine the procedure for future placements.
